Innovation Excellence Awards and Lunch

This is a special lunch to celebrate Innovation, Creativity and Excellence in the Communications and Content Industries. Innovation, Creativity and Excellence are key watchwords here, at the Stationers' Company.

Through its annual Innovation Excellence Awards programme, the Stationers' Company recognises companies and individual business units within the £70 billion UK Communications and Content industries that have found a path to growth and prosperity through initiatives that enhance company performance.

Key to business success is the sharing of best practice and selected entries will be invited to participate in an exhibition of their innovative products and services. This will open at 11am for visitors to view, learn from the exhibiting companies and to network. It will be followed by a prestigious lunch at which the winners of the Stationers' Company Innovation Excellence Awards will be announced.

A brochure containing details of all companies that submitted entries will be issued at the end of the event at 3.00 pm.

Entries for the competition are still coming in and there is room for more. If you would like to submit an entry, please contact Deborah Rea at communications@stationers.org.
