This event is for Liverymen and their guests only.

There is the highest of possibilities that every Liverymen of the Stationers' Company will have met and conversed with this year's guest speaker. As Clerk to the Chamberlain's Court since 2001, Murray Craig has had the privilege of presiding over nearly all of the Freedom of the City ceremonies in that time. An experienced and thoroughly entertaining after-dinner speaker, Murray is one of the most knowledgeable speakers about Livery Companies and the governance of the City of London. The evening promises to be very entertaining and one of the highlights of the Livery's annual event calendar.

Pre-dinner drinks will be served from 6.30 pm in the Court Room with guests seated in the Hall for dinner at 7.00 pm. A three-course meal with wines, coffee and port will be served and a Loving Cup will be passed round the Hall as part of the dinner's ceremony. The dinner will conclude at 10.15 pm, followed by a Stirrup Cup (after dinner bar) in the Court Room. Carriages will be at 10.45 pm.

Tickets are £85 inc. VAT and there is no limit to the number of guests you may bring.

Spouses and partners are welcome to attend. Applications will be dealt with on a first come, first served basis.

Please complete and return the attached slip, with payment, to book your place(s) by Wednesday, 11 September. Alternatively, you can book your tickets online at www.stationers.org/events. For further information please contact Lucie McCord at admin@stationers.org or call 0207 246 0982.

Dress Code: Strictly Black Tie (no coloured ties, cummerbunds or shirts).
